

Your 15 Minutes of Fame

Legendary Canadian Freestyle Comedy

An improv night with you as the star! Lee White invites audience members who have no stage experience to join him on stage. This show is an inspiration for the spectators to try something new and be rewarded for taking risks. The result is always moving and surprising, for both the observers and those who dare to get up there. Its just magical to watch people who think they can't do something try and succeed. Lee guides them through improvised scenes on stage, proving his special gift for letting his partners shine in a funny, touching and always unique show. "Your 15 minutes of fame" is very much inspired and influenced by the work of "Theatre X" and Stephen McIntyre in Winnipeg, Canada.

Interview about the show from Vienna Wurstelstand:

<http://www.viennawurstelstand.com/index.php/the-arts/on-stage-a-backwards-interview-with-bearded-canadian-improv-actor-lee-white-about-youre-15-minutes-of-fame/>

Lee White (CRUMBS)

Having recently moved to Berlin, Lee is not entirely new to the city. Being part of the acclaimed improv duo CRUMBS from Winnipeg/Canada, Lee White has been performing and teaching improv (almost) all his life and frequently visited Berlin before. Touring with shows and workshops all over Europe, in Asia, New Zealand and North-America, CRUMBS have performed all over the world.

Aside from the famous CRUMBS longform improv, Lee has been involved in the birth of several new formats such as The Big Smart Improv Show and the Dungeons and Dragons Improv Show, both being Fringe hits in Canada, and Knowledge or Punishment, the Improv/Game show, a hit on both sides of the ocean.

He is still on the road regularly, on his own as well as with different projects, namely „No Exit“ with French colleagues Marko Mayerl and Matthieu Loos, as „CRUMBS Garage“ with René Dellefont (Atlanta) and as „Paradigm“ together with Joe Bill (Chicago).